This book is a collaboration between Ilsy and EZ. It's pretty self-explanatory but, to summarize it for you, it essentially critiques the exploitative nature of capitalism—the commodification of everything and often to an absurd, albeit comical, avail. We hope that you have a few chuckles here and there—perhaps shed a few tears if necessary. Pour yourself a drink...and read!

"This sculpture was created by an outsider artist who spent years without a home, using the cart as a means of storage and sustenance."
